OHADA (in English) – Organisation for the Harmonization of Business Law in Africa.
OHADA – O. Organisation pour l'Harmonisation en Afrique du Droit des Affaires
OHADA is a system of business law in West and Central Africa, includes 17 countries.

The main purpose of OHADA is unification and updating of business law to provide juridical and judicial security for economic activity in its member-states.

To date in OHADA 10 Uniform Acts (fr. l'Acte Uniforme) have been adopted that cover three categories of enterprises regulation:
1) commercial activity, includes uniform acts on general commercial law, organizing securities, on contracts for carriage of goods by road;
2) registration and accounting of commercial enterprises, includes uniform acts on commercial companies and Economic Interest Groups – EIG, on Cooperatives, on the organization and harmonization of accounting and Accounting Law and Financial Reporting;
3) settlement of commercial disputes and collection of trade receivables, includes uniform acts on arbitration law, on Simplified Debt Collection Procedures and Enforcement Proceedings, on bankruptcy proceedings, on Mediation.

The site legafrik.com will help to quickly and efficiently resolve various legal issues related to conducting business activities in the territory of OHADA Member States, including to register, change the form, close commercial companies. In addition, on this site you can seek the services of a lawyer.
